Have Charming Hair
Free From Dandruff

Men and Women: Is Your Hair Lustrous, Soft and Abundant?

One bottle of Parisian Sage will prove to any man or woman that dandruff can be banished forever and that there is no need of falling hair and that scalp itch is unnecessary.

It is a delightful, refreshing, invigorating, harmless and inexpensive liquid that every druggist knows about and speaks well of.

But one thing that has especially made Parisian Sage famous is its peculiar power to turn harsh, unattractive hair into luxuriant hair in a short time, and women who desire fascinating hair should not be without it.

W. L. Gokay guarantees it to do just as advertised or money back, and he sells lots of it.

GET OUT OF MEXICO

Immediate Withdrawal of American Troops Demanded

OUR MOTIVES CHALLENGED

First Chief Charges United States Has Not Lived Up to Declarations.

Mexico City, May 31.—Asserting that the words and protestations of the United States have been entirely in contradiction of its acts, and that, in spite of protestations of non-interference in the affairs of Mexico, soldiers of the United States are now in Mexico without the consent of the Mexican Government and in violation of Mexico's sovereignty, the Mexican Government now asks for the immediate withdrawal of those troops.

The request is made in a 12,000 word note made public at the Foreign Office today.

The note recites that the American troops crossed the frontier after the Columbus raid without the permission of the Mexican Government. The act was not considered one of invasion then solely because the United States said it had misinterpreted the attitude of the Mexican Government.

"The Mexican Government therefore invites the United States to bring to an end this unsupportable situation," the note concludes, "and to support its protestations and declarations of friendship by an immediate withdrawal of the American troops."

"The American Government," it is asserted, "has admitted that the work of the expedition which entered after the Columbus raid is now over. But in spite of this fact American troops still remain on Mexican soil. To contend that political disorder in this country justifies this act of the American military forces is in conflict with the repeated professions of the Washington Government relative to non-interference."

CLAIMS SUICIDE PACT

Providence Man Claims He Gave Dead Girl First Opportunity.

Providence, R. I., June 1.—Beatrice Walters, 22, was found dead near her home this morning with a bullet through her breast. James O'Brien, with whom the girl was last seen, was arrested. O'Brien at first said that the girl had killed herself while in his company but later told a story of a suicide pact. He said that when the girl learned that he had a loaded revolver in his possession she suggested that they die together. He agreed to the proposal and permitted the girl to go to her death first. When he attempted to end his own life, he said, the bullet struck a buckle and was deflected. The police doubt the story.

New York, June 1.—Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, the young dentist convicted last Saturday of murdering his wealthy father-in-law, John E. Peck of Grand Rapids, Mich., by poison, was today sentenced by Justice Scharn to be electrocuted at Sing Sing during the week beginning July 10.

Waite made an address to the court in which he thanked the officials and his counsel and said he realized that it was futile to ask forgiveness of those whom he had wronged but that he was ready to give his life in atonement.

STATE Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION

Forty-Fourth Annual Convention Held at Burlington.

The 44th state convention of the Young Men's Christian association of Vermont was held at Burlington May 26-28, at the same time celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Burlington association and the 49th anniversary of the state committee.

Governor Gates brought greetings from the state. The governor spoke of the industrial and agricultural awakening in Vermont during the past decade and its need. He thought, however, that we had lost the higher ideals of life in looking too closely to the material advancement. The Young Men's Christian association stands for a high standard of citizenship and manhood.

There are fifteen associations in the state with 21 employed officers. The membership is 3,777, and 404 men are serving on working committees besides 99 corresponding members.

The state committee recommends that each association put first things first, the holding of Sunday meetings for men and boys, Bible classes, evangelistic and joint-church campaigns. The convention closed Sunday night in joining session with the Grand Army at a union service at the Baptist church.

NEWFAKE'S MEMORIAL

Soldiers' Monument Dedicated on Decoration Day.

Brattleboro, May 30.—Newfake, the little county seat of Windham county, was never so bedecked before with bunting and flags as it is today for the dedication of the soldiers' monument. Every building in the village is alive with color, and flags of all nations are suspended over the streets leading to the court house on the triangle to the south of which stands the monument which was unveiled today. From early morning until the time for the exercises to begin people had come from far and near in teams, by train and in automobiles to attend the exercises.

Last August several citizens interested themselves in raising funds for a monument to be erected for the soldier dead and the sum of $1,400 was collected by subscription. The monument is of Dunsmuir white granite, the base stone of which is six and one-half feet square. It is capped by a six-foot figure of a soldier cast in bronze. On three sides of the die of the monument are bronze tablets, 24x36 inches in size. The tablet on front bears the following inscription cast in a bas-relief of a battle:

In Memory of
The Men of Newfake
Who Served Their Country
in the Civil War
1861-1865.

On Fame's Eternal Camping Ground
Their Silent Tents Are Spread
And Glory Guards With Solemn Round
The Bivouac of the Dead.

The other two tablets bear the names of 132 soldiers and sailors in whose memory the monument is erected.

The dedicatory exercises were opened at 1:30 o'clock with a bugle call. William H. Newton, president of the day, made brief introductory remarks, the Rev. G. W. Mock gave the invocation and "America" was sung to the accompaniment of the South London derry band which furnished music for the occasion. Frank A. DeWitt, treasurer of the association, gave brief words of welcome and after a selection by the band the monument was unveiled by Miss Charlotte DeWitt and Miss Margaret Higgins. A double quartet sang "Tenting Tonight" and the dedicatory exercises by the G. A. R. took place.

The addresses were by the Hon. Frank L. Fish of Vermont, judge of the superior court, who spoke on "National Morality," and by former Lieutenant Gov. Frank E. Howe of Bennington, who spoke of the relation of the past to the future. George B. Bush of Newfake read Lincoln's Gettysburg address and then followed the formal presentation of the monument to the town.

ALL DEAD MAN HILL POSITIONS TAKEN BY GERMANS

French Compelled to Evacuate Positions East of the Meuse

Paris, June 1.—The French have been compelled to surrender all positions on Dead Man hill, the last of the defenses northwest of Verdun. These positions have been so completely torn by the fire of the German artillery that the French have been forced to fall back.

Paris, June 1.—The Germans have thrown 75,000 fresh troops into the fighting about Verdun during the past week, the war office announced today. Since February fully a million Germans have gathered on the Verdun front and the estimated losses in killed wounded and missing are placed at 300,000.

London, May 31.—Attacks on the west bank of the Meuse, described in the French official reports as of a most violent character have given the Germans a little more ground in their great battle for Verdun. These great infantry charges extended from Dead Man Hill east to the Meuse and were successful in the Caurette Wood. Here the Paris War office admits the French were forced to retire from the first line trench which had previously been leveled by artillery fire "of unheard-of violence."

Against this loss, the French report tonight the capture of a strong German position to the southwest of Le Mort Homme. The French took 229 prisoners here, including five officers, and seven machine guns.

Further German activity on this front is indicated by the French report of German attempts to debouch from Coudieres toward Chantonnay. Some of these attempts were at first successful, but the French report asserts that the Germans were eventually forced back to the village, certain groups who took advantage of a fog to advance to Chantonnay being wiped out by French guns.

The violent bombardment goes on on the rest of the Verdun front.

UNAMERICANISM DENOUNCED BY ROOSEVELT

Hyperates Charged With Moral Treason

St. Louis, Mo., June 1.—Theodore Roosevelt made three speeches in this city yesterday in which he advocated universal military service, declared the German-American alliance was guilty of moral treason and anti-Americanism and denounced President Wilson's Memorial Day speech as weak. Cheering crowds greeted him.

Mr. Roosevelt maintained that President Wilson used "weasel" words which sucked the life out of his phrases and made them meaningless. "When Mr. Wilson speaks of 'universal voluntary training,'" he asserted, "he draws a parallel to a truancy law which would make universal attendance by children at school obligatory to all except those who wanted to keep away."

Mr. Roosevelt addressed the largest crowd at the City club in the afternoon, where he said that neutrality that allowed tramping on American rights could not be tolerated, and that there could be no Americans who were not Americans to the heart. "I denounce the German-American alliance with all my soul," he shouted. "The acts of its leaders constitute moral treason to our government and our people."

Moral treason to the United States was charged by Col. Roosevelt against German-Americans who seek to make their governmental representatives act in the interests of Germany rather than this country. He characterized the German-American alliance as "an anti-American alliance," but added that he believed that its members "not only do not represent but scandalously misrepresent" the great majority of real Americans of German origin.

Urging the motto "America for Americans" for all Americans whether they were born here or abroad, the former president declared that "the salvation of our people lies in having a nationalized and unified America, ready for the tremendous tasks of both war and peace." "I appeal to all our citizens," the colonel said, "no matter from what land their forefathers came to keep this ever in mind, and to shun with scorn and contempt the sinister intrigues and mischief-makers who would seek to divide them along lines of creed, of birthplace or of national origin."

PLEA FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Veterans Deserve Our Assistance Now as Never Before.

Editor of The Banner:—Another year has passed swiftly away, bearing with it once more that most sacred of all our national holidays, Memorial day, and it seems fitting that, through the columns of the Banner, a few words be said in regards to its meaning and its observance.

It was my privilege to be with the patriotic organizations, and have a small part in the duties of the day, and I observed several incidents worthy of note.

In a recent issue of the Banner you stated that at present the local Grand Army post numbered but forty members, of whom thirty were expected to be present and take part in the exercises of the day. As a matter of fact, 22 veterans only were seated at the dinner, served at 11:30 by the Women's Relief Corps, and the number present was a sad reminder of the rapid decrease in the membership of our post, as well as of the fact now is the time for manifesting our patriotism as citizens of our town in the honor and care we bestow upon the men to whom we owe a debt which can never be paid.

Present at dinner and at the exercises which followed was an aged veteran, Dexter M. Camp of western Kansas. Mr. Camp was born in Bennington in 1832, but left Vermont early in life and located in Illinois where at the outbreak of the war of the rebellion, he enlisted in the 47th Illinois which was a part of the 15th corps. He served faithfully during our country's struggle and at the close located in western Kansas, his present home. He is a cousin of H. G. Camp of this town and both veterans were in G. A. R. hall, neither knowing the others presence until told by comrades after which they greatly enjoyed their first meeting after a lapse of nearly sixty years. Mr. Camp's youthful courage was fully demonstrated in his long trip to visit his native town at such an advanced age.

Great credit is due the organizations of the town who took part in the duties of the day, especially the Sons of Veterans, upon whom the sacred duties of the day must soon devolve. About 39 of the Sons were present and did all in their power to lighten the labors and increase the pleasure of the day for the veterans.

The Boy Scouts of whom about 15 were in line, and the children from our schools, of whom there were about 60, also deserve mention, as both added to the beauty of the parade.

While standing in the cemetery at the soldiers' home, looking into the faces of our veterans and noting the absence of many who were present one year ago, but have since been "mustered in" to the greater Grand Army, I could not refrain from thinking whether we as a community realize what an honor and privilege is ours in having these men in our midst, or how brief must be the time until these also will rest from these labors, and only Memorial day itself remain for us to honor. It would seem that did we realize in full the meaning of these things, no tribute we could give, no sacrifices we could make, no additional honor we could bestow now, would be delayed or seem too much for us to do. May we not each one make a greater effort to make each remaining Memorial day more beautiful and holy for those who yet remain with us, asking in return only that pleasure which such service rendered should give to every true American man and woman.

Yours in the spirit of the day,
Ruth England Smith,
Past Dept. Sec. V. W. R. C.
Bennington, Vt., May 31, 1916.

ROBERT A. CARTMELL

Vice-President of Middlebury National Bank Dies.

Middlebury, May 28.—Robert A. Cartmell, vice-president of the Middlebury National bank, died suddenly last night. He was 69 years of age. Mr. Cartmell had been about as usual, although in ill health for some time. It is thought that disease of the kidneys was the cause of death. He represented Middlebury in the Legislature of 1898 and 1899, and was Addison county senator in 1902.

Mr. Cartmell was born in Lancaster, England, July 24, 1847. He came to Canada when but 17. When he was 20 he came to Vermont and engaged in the pulp business at East Barre. Later he moved to Hallowell, Me., to become superintendent of the two mills of the East Mountain Paper company. With others he formed the Green Mountain Pulp company at Middlebury and for a time he had an interest in the Belden Falls pulp mills, later erecting mills at Huntington Falls and Weybridge.

His first marriage was to Jessie H. Gamble of Barre. His second wife was Mrs. Lucy E. Stale of Middlebury. He leaves four brothers, Isaac Cartmell and John Cartmell who live in England, Miles Cartmell of Lennoxville, Can., and Albert Cartmell of Palestine, Texas; and one nephew, James R. Cartmell of Middlebury.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. Stephen's church.

He was an extensive shipper of merino sheep, cattle and mules to Africa, South America and Australia.

WEATHER FORECAST

For eastern New York and western Vermont fair tonight and probably Friday, rise in temperature.

SHACKLETON SAFE IN FALKLAND ISLANDS

Explorer Has Arrived at Port Stanley From Antarctic

Expedition Forced to Turn Back From Pole—Absent Nearly Two Years.

London, June 1.—Lieut. Sir Ernest Shackleton, the Antarctic explorer, has arrived safely at Port Stanley, Falkland islands. Lieut. Shackleton's expedition, which had as an object the crossing of the Antarctic continent from Weddell sea to Ross sea, started from England in August, 1914. Sir Ernest, with one section of the party, went to Buenos Ayres, and the other section of the party to Tasmania. At Buenos Ayres, in October, 1914, Sir Ernest sailed for Weddell sea. The other party later proceeded from Tasmania by the steamer Aurora for Ross sea, where it was hoped Sir Ernest and his party would join it after crossing the continent. Early in the present year the Aurora returned to Port Chalmers, N. Z., having broken drift in the ice on May 6, 1915. Eight of her men were ashore when the vessel broke away, and nothing had been heard from Shackleton and his companions at the Ross sea base. Port Stanley is the capital of the Falkland islands, which lie in the south Atlantic, off the southeast of Argentina.
